♪♪♪♪♪ WITS TRIO ♪♪♪♪♪

Earlier this month GMS staged 'That Old Time Radio Show'; a concert performed by musicians who reside in George and surrounds. Several members had requested that we make more use of local talent, so this we did. It was therefore a pity that the appreciative audience was comprised mostly of non-members of the Society. We are grateful to Michael van der Walt, head of music at Outeniqua Primary School and his 'cast of fellow performers' for this enjoyable concert. Sue Rijdsdijk's report on this concert is attached.

Our last concert for 2016 will be on Sunday 13 November at 15h30, at the Arts Theatre. The trio comprises well known artistes; Zanta Hofmeyr, Malcolm Nay and Maciej Lacny.

The poster features a photograph of the three musicians: a woman on the left with a violin, a man in the center at a piano, and a man on the right with a cello. The title "The Wits Trio" is written in a large, white, cursive font at the top. Below the photo, the names and instruments of the musicians are listed. The date and time of the concert are prominently displayed in the center. At the bottom, there is information about ticket prices, where to buy tickets, and contact details for enquiries.

Zanta Hofmeyr graduated from The Juilliard School of Music. A recipient of numerous awards and scholarships, her most recent awards include a nomination as best female artist at the KKNK arts festival as well as a SAMA nomination for her CD Cantilena. She has featured as soloist with South African orchestras in performances of concertos by Britten, Beethoven, Bruch, Mendelssohn, Hofmeyr etc.

Malcolm Nay is widely regarded as one of the finest chamber pianists and accompanists in South Africa. After graduating with a BMus from Wits University, he travelled on scholarships to America, where he studied with Bela Siki. As a soloist, he has appeared with most of South Africa's major orchestras. Malcolm Nay is also a highly regarded recitalist and a sought after adjudicator at prestigious music competitions throughout the country. He is currently Associate Professor at WitsMusic, Wits School of Arts (WSOA).

Maciej Lacny was born in Cracow (Poland) and graduated from the F. Chopin High School (1995) and the Cracow Conservatory of Music (2001). Between 1995-1999 he played many concerts around Europe with the Cracow Quartet in Switzerland, Belgium, Holland and Germany. He has cooperated with orchestras like Sinfonietta Cracovia, Capella Cracoviensis, Cracow Opera, Breslau Symphony Orchestra. From 1996 to 2007 he also played as principal cello of the Cracow Radio Symphony Orchestra.

The programme will consist of Brahm's Trio in C minor, Beethoven's Trio Opus 11 and Piazzola's Four Seasons.

Advance bookings can be made at Shop 12A, Precap Centre from Monday 31 October. This is THE OFFICE, on the left of the entrance to the mini Pick n Pay in Courtenay Street. Entrance to the car park at Precap Centre is just before KFC, between Wellington & Mitchell Streets.

Members and public are requested to preferably reserve and pay for seats at The Office. Telephone reservations can be made, and the tickets paid for and collected prior to close of business on Saturday 12 November. EFT payments can be made for telephonic bookings to the GMS account at Nedbank, York St. (109114) account no. 1091026696, and proof of payment should please be faxed to 086 618 7792, or email to liezel@theofficegeorge.co.za. The tickets will then be available at the Arts Theatre prior to the concert.

The concert series for 2017 has been finalised and information on this will be emailed during November.

George Musiekvereniging het vroeër hierdie maand 'That Old Time Radio Show', 'n konsert deur kunstenaars van die omgewing, aangebied. Verskeie GMV-lede het gevra dat ons meer gebruik maak van plaaslike talent, so dis wat ons gedoen het. Daarom was dit 'n jammerte dat die gehoor hoofsaaklik uit nie-lede van die GMV bestaan het. Ons is baie dank verskuldig aan Michael van der Walt, hoof van musiek by Outeniqua Laerskool en sy medekunstenaars vir 'n genotvolle konsert. Sue Rijdsdijk se verslag oor die konsert is hierby aangeheg.

Ons laaste konsert vir die jaar is op Sondag 13 November om 15h30 by die Kunsteteater. Die trio bestaan uit bekende kunstenaars Zanta Hofmeyr, Malcolm Nay en Maciej Lacny.

Zanta Hofmeyr het aan die Juilliard Skool van Musiek gegraduateer. Sy is die ontvanger van talle toekennings en beurse, die mees onlangse toekenning is haar nominasie as beste vroulike kunstenaar by die KKNK sowel as 'n SAMA-nominasie vir haar CD Cantilena. Sy het as solis opgetree saam met Suid-Afrikaanse orkeste in uitvoerings van konserte deur Britten, Beethoven, Bruch, Mendelsohn, Hofmeyr ens.

Malcolm Nay word deur talle beskou as een van die beste kamermusiekpianiste en begeleiers in Suid-Afrika. Nadat hy by Wits graduateer met 'n B.Mus., reis hy met beurse na Amerika waar hy studeer onder Bela Siki. Hy het as solis al met die meeste van Suid-Afrika se belangrikste orkeste opgetree. Hy is 'n hooggeagte voordragkunstenaar en 'n gesogte beoordelaar by vooraanstaande musiekkompetisies dwarsdeur die land. Hy is tans mede-professor by Witsmusic, Wits School of Arts (WSOA).

Maciej Lacny is in Krakow (Pole) gebore. In 1995 voltooi hy sy studies by die F. Chopin Hoërskool en in 2001 graduateer hy by die Krakow Musiekkonservatorium. Tussen 1995-1999 speel hy in talle konserte in Europa (Switserland, België, Holland en Duitsland) met die Krakow-kwartet. Hy het al saamgewerk met orkeste soos Simfonietta Cracovia, Capella Cracoviensis, Cracow Opera en Breslau simfonieorkes. Vanaf 1996 tot 2007 was hy ook hooftjellospeler by die Krakow Radiosimfonieorkes.

Die program sal bestaan uit Brahms se Trio in C mineur, Beethoven se Trio Opus 11 en Piazzola se Vier Seisoene.
